DEAR LORD OF BATTLES

Dear Lord of Battles as we go through life,

We ask for a chance to spare,

A chance to equal our stride,

A chance to do or dare,

If we should win, let it be by the code with faith and honor held high,

If we should lose we'll stand by the road and cheer as the winners go by,

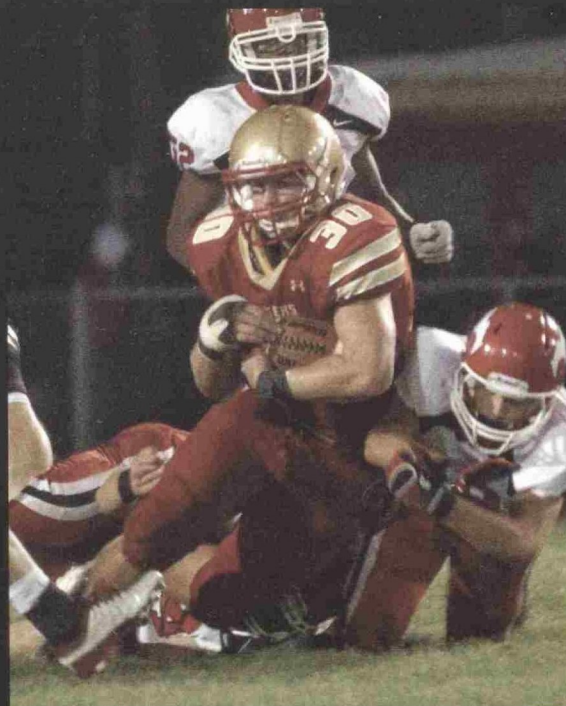

Day by Day,

We get better and better

Till we can't be beat,

WON'T BE BEAT!!!!

Prayer Blanket Ministry

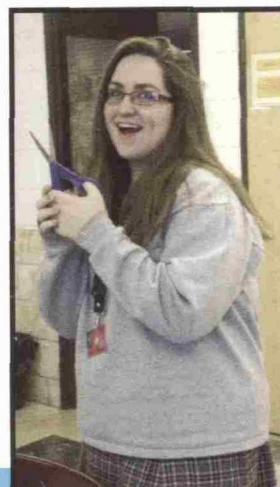

"Doing this was so fun and really felt great when the blankets were being made; we knew we were doing something that would comfort those who truly needed it. The blankets that are given last a long time, and every time it's used, that person or family, or whoever uses it, is receiving that prayer and comfort. It's really amazing"

THEY
WHAT?

Christa Tarala, Editor

Goodbye Mr. Horvath, you will be missed.

"Teacher and friend,

Oh gentle soul,
How strongly you fought,
Alas, it was your time to go,
But how soon - none of us had thought.

Our faithful teacher,
A friend down the hall,
lived a life to revere
and is an inspiration to us all.

No longer bound by mortal chains,
you now soar in the heavens above
and see all the lives that you have changed through your constant guidance and love.

Mr. Horvath, we will all miss you very much;
You will be alive in our hearts and -
because of you -
Our lives are forever touched."

A poem by senior Christian Sanchez

Lanterns were released in honor of Mr. Horvath.

Spring Prayer Service

Hope in our Prayers

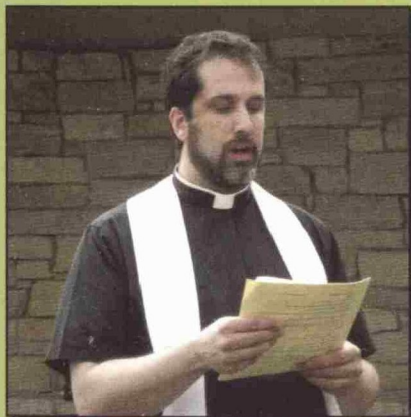

In the beginning of May, a prayer service was held in the grotto after school, and attended by students, teachers, and staff. It was held for Mr. Horvath who, unfortunately, near the end of April was diagnosed with cancer and been in the hospital - in hope that he would get well. The service was also dedicated to other members of the Andrean family who had been ill before or during the course of the year.

The service was led by Fr.
Mick Kopil

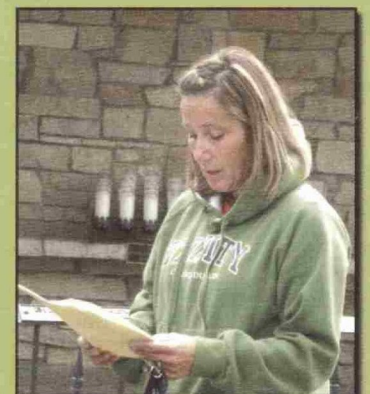

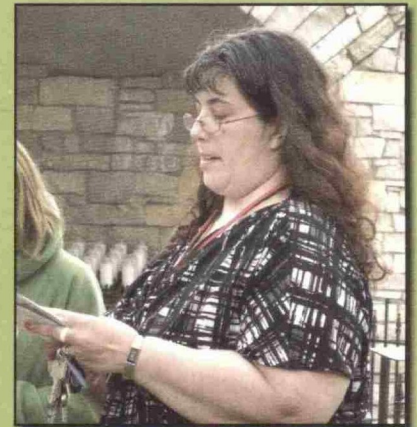

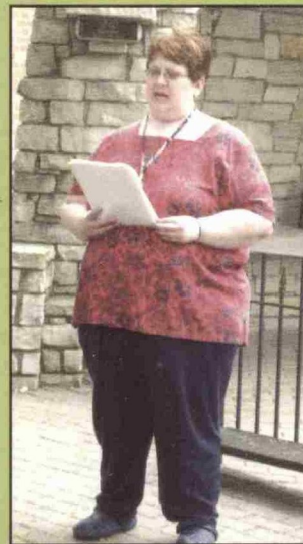

left Students embrace each other at the end of the service in a sign of peace.

right Miss Kopil, Ms. Bolakowski, and Mrs. DeMass take part in the readings and leading sections of the prayers for those sick in the Andrean family.

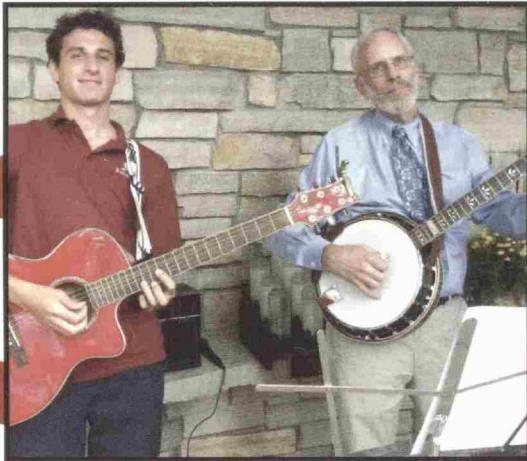

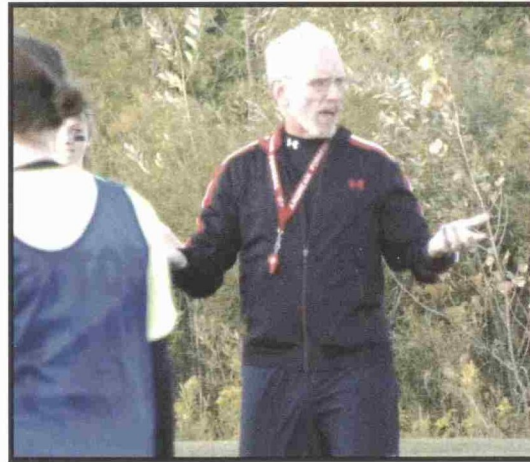

left Fr. Mick reads prayers and speaks during the homily. He mentioned focused on those in the Andrean family who had become sick in the last year, and especially our teacher, Mr. Horvath.

INDEX/ ADS

Four years ago, we walked into this school. We made and stuck to a group of friends, and we promised ourselves that we would never change. Now, all those years later, we can look back and realize how naive we were. That's not a bad thing, either. We've had our fights, we've hugged each other, we've cried together, and we laughed together. We enjoyed each and every moment of our high school experience together. However, now we must move on. Some of us are going to the military, some are staying home; others will leave the state. Some will never come back. Maybe it will seem as though some have dropped off the face of the Earth. No matter which of these categories you yourself fit into, you and everyone else reading this share one wonderful thing in common: we each have family and wonderful memories in Andrean High School. No matter what happens on this day forward, even if you do not return, never forget where you came from. Even if your only wish is to reinvent yourself once you leave, you must remember your roots, for that's what made you who you are, as cheesy as that may sound.

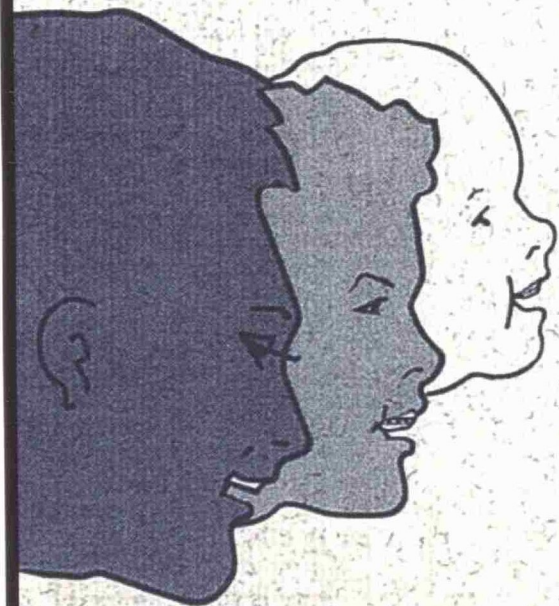

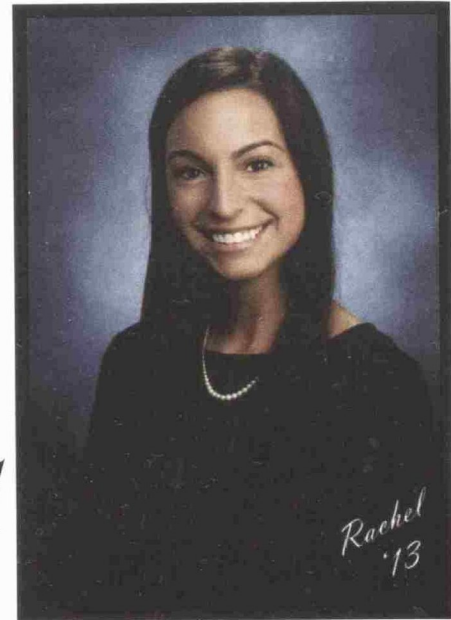

It's been a great four years, guys. I can honestly say that I will miss each and everyone of you.

Sincerely, Haley Schrager, Decussata Editor

“Every person you meet knows something you don’t; learn from them.”

If you believe in yourself and have the courage, determination, the dedication, the competitive drive and if you are willing to sacrifice the little things in life and pay the price for the things that are worthwhile, it can be done.

To the Senior Class, and anyone else in need of advice:

“Vienna” by Billy Joel

Slow down, you crazy child.
You're so ambitious for a juvenile.

But then if you're so smart tell me,
Why are you still so afraid?

Where's the fire, what's the hurry about?
You better cool it off before you burn it out.

You got so much to do and only
So many hours in a day.

But you know that when the truth is told,
That you can get what you want
Or you can just get old.

You're gonna kick off before you even get halfway through
When will you realize... Vienna waits for you?

Slow down, you're doing fine.
You can't be everything you want to be before your time,
Although it's so romantic on the borderline tonight.

Too bad, but it's the life you lead.
You're so ahead of yourself that you forgot
what you need
Though you can see when you're wrong,
You know you can't always see when you're right.

You got your passion, you got your pride,
But don't you know that only fools are satisfied?
Dream on, but don't imagine they'll all come true.
When will you realize... Vienna waits for you?

Slow down you crazy child
Take the phone off the hook and disappear for a while.
It's alright, you can afford to lose a day or two.

When will you realize... Vienna waits for you?

And you know that when the truth is told
That you can get what you want or you can just get old.
You're gonna kick off before you even get halfway through.
Why don't you realize... Vienna waits for you?

When will you realize... Vienna waits for you?

Closing time, every new beginning comes from some other beginning's end....

Top Left: Senior girls at the first tailgate
of the year. Top Right: Student council:
Rachel Skinner, Madi Vlasic, Dakota
right: Seniors at graduation.

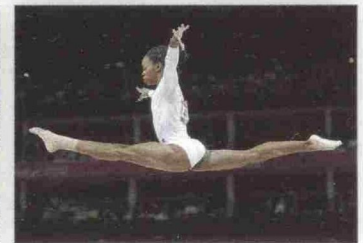

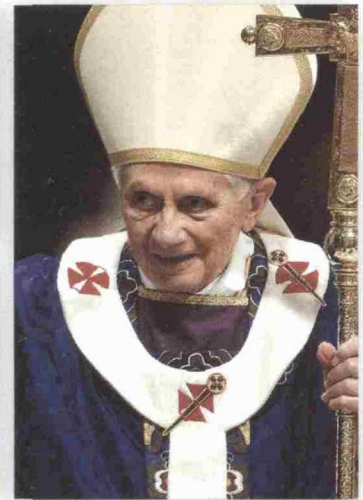

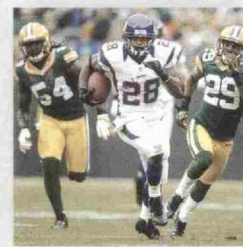

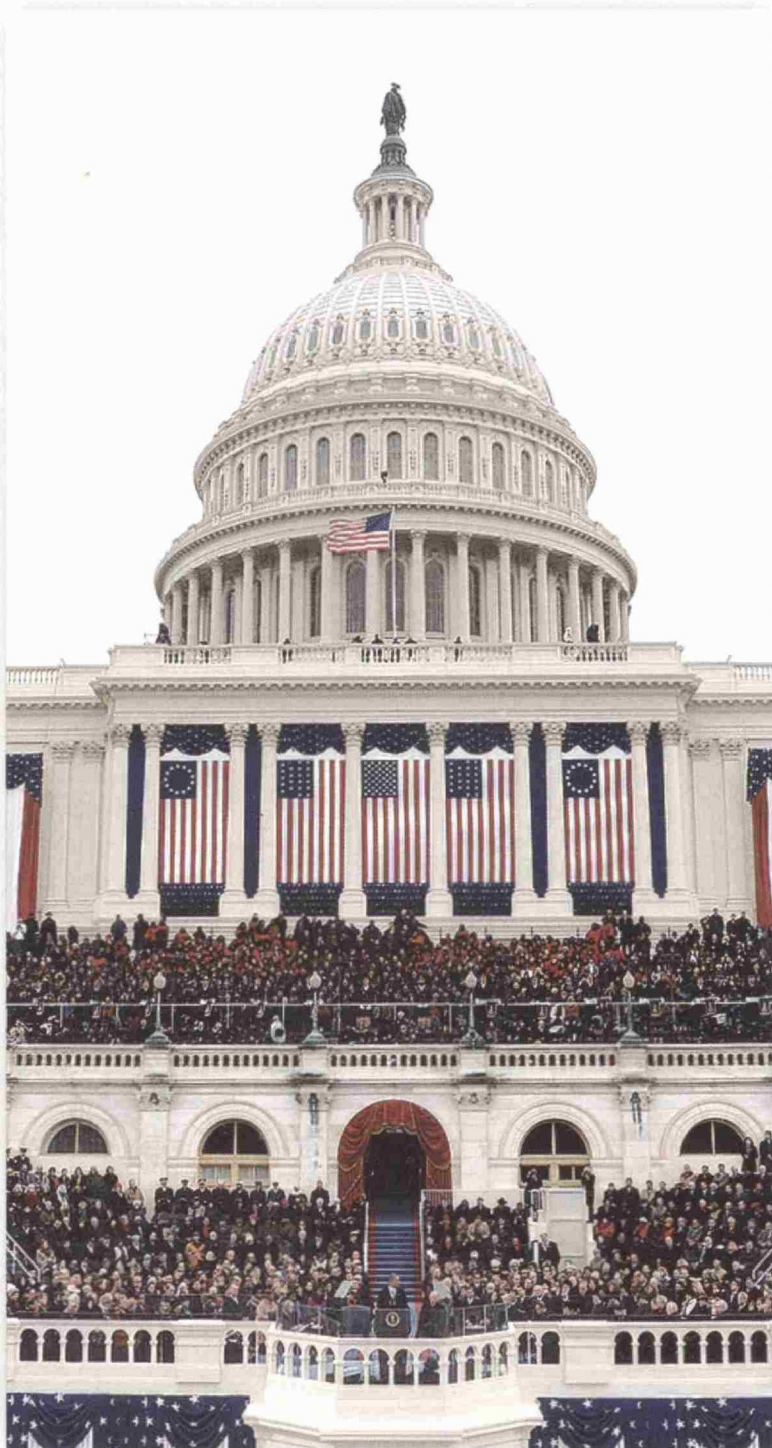

Good luck, everybody.
You'll do great in all
that you try to do.

MOST DECORATED OLYMPIAN EVER

The medal count as Michael Phelps ended his swimming career in London was staggering: 22 in all, including 18 Golds. From London alone, Phelps earned four Golds and a pair of Silvers. The 27-year-old champion officially retired from competitive swimming after the Olympic Games and was vague about his plans for the future. Also in the pool, Colorado's 17-year-old Missy Franklin captivated fans, winning four Golds and a Bronze while setting two new world records. And Ryan Lochte's five new Olympic medals, including two Golds, along with his big personality and good looks, set off a new career on screen — though he already committed to competing in Rio. Ongoing controversy surrounded record-breaking performances by Chinese swimmer Ye Shiwen, 16, who won a pair of IM Golds and smashed world records by delivering times better than either Phelps or Lochte. Proving doubters wrong, Shiwen tested clean for doping.

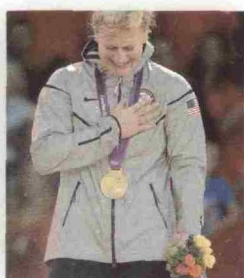

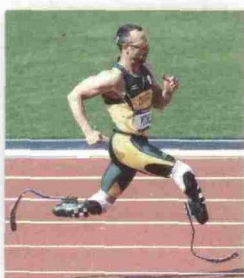

GOLD THRICE Called "the greatest beach volleyball team of all time," Misty May-Treanor and Kerri Walsh Jennings repeated as women's beach volleyball champions in London. In addition to their three Olympic Golds, the duo won three World Championships before May-Treanor retired. RECORD-BREAKING When Carmelita Jeter anchored a world-record effort in the 4x100-meter relay, Team USA won the Gold medal with a scorching time of 40.82 seconds. That mark, the first in history under 41 seconds, broke a record set in 1985.

MORE GOLD Without dropping a set during the Games, sisters Venus and Serena Williams earned Gold in doubles with victories over the Czech Republic and Russia. In addition, Serena took top singles honors, so she — like her sister — owned five Olympic Gold medals.
